

Memorial Hall : COVID-19 Security

Occupancy estimates are based on individuals attending, rather than groups of people from the same or no more than 2 households. They represent a cautious approach and Hirers must make their own assessment, based on this guidance, according to the types of activity, space taken by furniture and equipment, age, relationships and vulnerability of their group.